

HB 353 -- Probation

Sponsor: Lipke

This bill changes the laws regarding probation. The bill:

(1) Allows the court to add up to a year onto a person's probationary period when the person has violated the terms of his or her probation;

(2) Allows a prosecutor to file a motion seeking the revocation of a person's probation; and

(3) Requires the court to temporarily suspend a person's probationary period when issuing an arrest warrant for the person. When the arrest warrant is served, the probation period will begin to run again.
