

HB 938 -- Crime Victims

Sponsor: Hughes

This bill allows victims of sexual offenses to have their name redacted from court records in the criminal case in which they are a victim prior to those records being released to any person. The name of the victim may be provided only to law enforcement, prosecuting attorneys, and the defendant's attorneys.