

House Resolution No. 1299

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State youths who admirably demonstrate their true potential as lifelong learners and future societal leaders through the excellence of their accomplishments as students; and

Whereas, Bailey Crosswhite of Springfield, Missouri, has distinguished herself as a student at the Phelps School for the Gifted who continued her studies as a participant in the Middle Years Scholars Program at Central High School; and

Whereas, Bailey Crosswhite enhanced her already impressive record of achievement when she attended the Student Television Network Convention in Anaheim, California, from February 2 through February 4, 2006; and

Whereas, while in attendance at the 2006 Student Television Network Convention, Bailey Crosswhite entered an "in-camera" competition that involved preparing, in only two hours, a story on the subject "the happiest homecoming on earth" based on Disney's Fiftieth Anniversary celebration; and

Whereas, Bailey Crosswhite and her Middle Years Scholars Program partner were awarded a Second Place trophy on Saturday, February 4, 2006, for their entry and became the first middle school students from Missouri to place in this prestigious competition; and

Whereas, the beloved daughter of Mark and Stephanie Crosswhite, Bailey Crosswhite has been involved in Girl Scouting for eight years and Youth Relay for Life, was a delegate to the Youth Model United Nations for two years, and is a member of the Central High School Nerd Club, Central High School Girls Choir, and Central High School Middle School Performance Band, for which she is a percussionist:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the achievements garnered thus far in the life of Bailey Crosswhite and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt congratulations for taking Second Place in a journalism competition at the 2006 Student Television Network Convention in Anaheim, California, in February; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Bailey Crosswhite of Springfield, Missouri.
