

House Resolution No. 80

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to recognize young men who have excelled during their association with the Boy Scouts of America program with its emphasis on physical, mental, and spiritual growth; self-reliance; personal values; service to others; and an appreciation and understanding of the wonderful natural world; and

Whereas, Anthony Lammar Jones of Troop 285 has successfully completed all of the stringent requirements for Scouting's highest advancement award, the rank of Eagle Scout, which will be bestowed upon him during an Eagle Court of Honor on January 14, 2007; and

Whereas, attainment of the Eagle Scout rank is dependent upon the sequential completion of each of the Boy Scout steps of Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class, Star, and Life, and expected troop service, requirements admirably fulfilled by Anthony; and

Whereas, diligent labors by Anthony earned him Hardway Warrior status and the name Hunter Lost in the Woods in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say, a 12 Month Camper patch, a 50 Miler patch, the Baden Powell Award, the World Conservation Award, and thirty-one merit badges that are arrayed on his uniform sash as a visual illustration of the diverse skills and knowledge which he has acquired as a Boy Scout; and

Whereas, in keeping with Scouting practice, Anthony applied the knowledge that he learned at troop meetings in many camping, hiking, and service activities; and

Whereas, Anthony completed an Eagle Project that consisted of beautifying and landscaping along the sidewalks and courtyard at Saint Monica's Catholic Church to serve as a capstone to his Scouting career and to stand as a constant reminder of his dedication to serving others, an admirable trait that justifies the esteemed role which Scouting plays in today's society:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the outstanding achievements realized by Anthony Jones during his eleven-year-long sojourn with Scouting and to congratulate him for having the drive and energy necessary to attain the rank of Eagle; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for new Eagle Scout Anthony Lammar Jones, son of Tony and Michele Jones.
