

House Resolution No. 699

Whereas, on March 6, 2007, in honor of Fine Arts Education Day and the Missouri Alliance for Arts Education, Sterling Singers from the Warrensburg R-VI School District will perform at the Missouri State Capitol; and

Whereas, Sterling Singers is one of only nine choral groups (K-12) statewide who were selected to perform for this occasion; and

Whereas, these fourth and fifth grade Sterling Singers include Shelby Roach, Annie Hanson, Regan Slaughter, Brooke Farwell, Noah Vessar, John Taylor, Justin Dean, Garrett Osborne, Matthew Zembraski, Hailey Lurker, Ashleigh Nachtmann, Lindsay King, Ally Hoke, Brie Monetti, Dani Agueros, Kayla Yates and Maria Shull who make up the first row; and

Whereas, Kaylee Youngdahl, Ashley McClain, Rachel Boone, Karyn Blunt, Sophie Winger, Rebecca Harness, Garren Wegener, Nick Forsythe, Brad Long, Dayln Culp, Jake Terry, Isaac Beymer, Sidney Bilbruck, Gabby Bisson, Rebecca Chambers, Emily Docheff and Brooke Fritz are in the second row; and

Whereas, Natalie Daniel, Abbie Bliss, Emily Dunkeson, Kaitlyn Gonzalez, Elizabeth Howard, Matthew McDonald, Nick Piontek, Steven Key, Branden Rieves, Darby Burge, Zoe Reed, Katelyn Rumsey, Samantha Bailey, Haley Stranghoener, Laura Siefkas and Anastasia Chaky round out the third row; and

Whereas, the purpose of the event is to educate legislators on the importance of supporting fine arts education in Missouri schools and of MAP Fine Arts Assessment for all fifth graders in the state:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our congratulations to the Sterling Singers and to thank them for honoring the Capitol and its visitors with their performance; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to the Sterling Singers of the Warrensburg R-VI School District.
