

House Resolution No. 1028

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have helped ensure that students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Joy Lieberman of University City, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a member of the University City School Board for nearly two and one-half decades, a leadership calling that she will draw to a close on April 5, 2007; and

Whereas, Joy Lieberman was not only a member of the University City School Board, but also served as its president, vice president, and secretary; and

Whereas, no stranger to honors and accolades, Joy Lieberman was inducted into the Order of Distinguished Older Missourians in 1995 in light of her voluntary contributions to young generations through her long service with school-related groups and for her commitment to the field of education in Missouri; and

Whereas, Joy Lieberman deserves mention of her invaluable service and leadership with the Missouri School Board Associations Board of Directors and its Federal Relations Network at a time when the federal Higher Education Act, Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and No Child Left Behind legislation was being formulated and reviewed; and

Whereas, Joy Lieberman also has served on the Saint Louis County Special School District Governing Council; the executive, athletic, legislative, and nominating committees of the Cooperating School Districts of Greater Saint Louis; and the Missouri Commission on Human Rights; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative endeavors in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of such outstanding Missouri residents as Joy Lieberman:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered by Joy Lieberman during her more than twenty-four years on the University City School Board and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she turns the focus of her time and energy to other worthwhile projects and activities; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Joy Lieberman of University City, Missouri.
