

House Resolution No. 1346

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who admirably ensure that students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Jerry Noble has attained considerable distinction as Superintendent of the Kennett School District in Dunklin County, Missouri; and

Whereas, on March 5, 2007, Superintendent Jerry Noble enhanced his already impressive record of achievement when he received the 2007 Allen Oakley Educator of the Year Award from the Kennett Chamber of Commerce at its annual banquet; and

Whereas, Superintendent Jerry Noble earned his special Educator of the Year status in light of his success in improving the district's financial position, its support within the community, and the morale of its faculty and staff; and

Whereas, Jerry Noble accepted the duties and responsibilities associated with the office of Superintendent of the Kennett public schools after having garnered a wealth of expertise as superintendent of the Campbell School District, a high school principal and curriculum coordinator for the New Madrid school system, the assistant principal at Paragould Junior High, a social studies teacher and girls basketball coach at Paragould High School, and a boys basketball and baseball coach in the Campbell schools; and

Whereas, the Allen Oakley Educator of the Year Award was established by the Kennett Chamber of Commerce fourteen years ago in order to recognize local educators who are nominated for the honor by individuals, civic groups, and organizations:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Superintendent Jerry Noble as the Allen Oakley Educator of the Year by the Kennett Chamber of Commerce and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Jerry Noble of Kennett, Missouri.
