

Whereas, as the 2006-2007 school year draws to a close, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to applaud the career achievements of those individuals who are retiring from the field of education; and

Whereas, the Nixa R-II School District is losing a valuable member of its staff in May 2007 with the retirement of Sandy Moya who has devoted twenty-three years of her life to the education of this state's young citizens through tireless endeavors as a counselor and an educator; and

Whereas, Sandy Moya has touched the lives of countless youngsters by helping them form a solid educational foundation upon which to build in the future; and; and

Whereas, deeply committed to the great cause of learning, Sandy Moya served in various positions at the Hazelwood, Springfield R-XII, Republic R-III, and Green City R-I school districts prior to assuming her responsibilities with Nixa R-II; and

Whereas, Sandy Moya has enjoyed recognition as a member of the Society of Human Resource Management Board of Directors, the Delaware Special Olympics, and the Advisory Board's for the Springfield Police Department Crimestoppers, the Springfield School District's Adult Basic Education Council, the Springfield Sheltered Workshop, and the Southwest Missouri State University short-term Instruction Program; and

Whereas, a state licensed psychological examiner, Sandy Moya earned both a Bachelor's degree and Master's degree at Southwest Missouri State University (now known as Missouri State University) in Springfield; and

Whereas, Sandy Moya has been blessed with the love and support of her wonderfully devoted husband, Casey Moya:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join the Nixa R-II School District in expressing appreciation for the unparalleled service that Sandy Moya has rendered to Missouri's children and in wishing her the long, fruitful, and enjoyable retirement that she so justly deserves; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Sandy Moya, as a measure of our esteem for her.
