

House Resolution No. 1515

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, Scott Mischka, of Overland Park, Kansas, has been named the Lions Club of Lexington, Missouri, Wentworth Military College Teacher of the Year for 2007 and will be honored during the Jim Worthington Teachers Appreciation Dinner hosted by the Lexington Lions Club; and

Whereas, Scott Mischka is a history instructor at Wentworth Military Academy and Junior College, in Lexington, Missouri; and

Whereas, Scott Mischka is an active member of Holy Rosary Church, a member of Phi-Alph Theta, a member of the Society for Historians for America; and a member of the American Historical Association; and

Whereas, Scott Mischka holds a Ph.D. in U.S. Foreign Relations from Kansas State University and is a recipient of the Truman Foundation Research Award and the Franklin D. Roosevelt Research Foundation Award; and

Whereas, Scott Mischka enjoys an impeccable reputation as an outstanding educator who creates a positive and productive learning environment, consistently challenging his students to be critical thinkers, and he is also known for his creativity and innovation and his consistently high standards:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our congratulations to Scott Mischka on the occasion of his being named the Lions Club of Lexington Wentworth Military College Teacher of the Year and to wish him every success in all his future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Scott Mischka.
