

House Resolution No. 1565

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, Georgia E. Moore will celebrate her one hundredth birthday on April 15, 2007, at the Royal Care Center in Excelsior Springs, Missouri, surrounded by family and friends; and

Whereas, Georgia Moore was born on April 15, 1907, in rural Gallatin, Missouri, in Davies County; and

Whereas, Georgia Moore took the hand Noble R. Moore, who lives on in her heart and in her memory, in holy matrimony; and

Whereas, Georgia and Nobel Moore had three children, N. Dean Moore, Sue M. Butler, and Camilla Moore, who lives on in the memories of all those who knew and loved her; and

Whereas, Georgia Moore has the job of watching her four grandsons, seven great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild grow into happy people and productive citizens; and

Whereas, Georgia Moore is well known in her community for being active in the Barbee Memorial Presbyterian Church, the Excelsior Springs Museum, and the CIA, a civic club:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our heartfelt congratulations and birthday wishes to Georgia Moore on the auspicious occasion of her one hundredth birthday and to wish her many happy returns of the day; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution Georgia E. Moore, of Excelsior Springs, Missouri.
