

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State youths who have admirably demonstrated their potential as lifelong learners and future societal leaders through the excellence of their achievements during their formative student years; and

Whereas, Emily Carrico of Liberty, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a sophomore at Liberty High School; and

Whereas, on Tuesday, April 10, 2007, Emily Carrico will participate in the latest edition of an annual Sophomore Pilgrimage sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs; and

Whereas, since 1934, the General Federation of Women's Clubs has recognized outstanding sophomore students throughout Missouri who exemplify honor, courage, citizenship, scholarship, leadership, and service; and

Whereas, selected sophomores must rank in the upper fourth of their class scholastically and be sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs; and

Whereas, the Sophomore Pilgrimage will provide Emily Carrico with an opportunity to learn more about state government and to meet elected officials; and

Whereas, a representative for the Liberty High School Fortnightly Study Club, Emily Carrico has also enjoyed recognition by serving as a reporter for her high school's newspaper, The Bell; by being a member of a swim team; and by volunteering for Serteens and Assisteens; and

Whereas, Emily Carrico has been blessed with the love and support of her wonderfully devoted parents, Stuart and Kay Carrico:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Emily Carrico as a participant in the Sophomore Pilgrimage sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt welcome to the Missouri State Capitol in Jefferson City; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Emily Carrico.
