

Whereas, as the 2006-2007 school year draws to a close, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to applaud the career achievements of those individuals who are retiring from the field of education; and

Whereas, the Marshall School District is losing a valuable member of its faculty with the retirement of Jacklyn Grossenburg who has devoted many years of her life to the education of this state's young citizens through tireless endeavors as an educator; and

Whereas, Jacklyn Grossenburg has taught for fifteen years in the Marshall School District, where she is held in high esteem as an educator who demonstrates considerable competence and remarkable degrees of compassion and understanding; and

Whereas, deeply committed to the great cause of learning, Jacklyn Grossenburg taught in the Malta Beno R-V School District for seven years prior to assuming her responsibilities in the Marshall School District, where she has served as a Counselor at Eastwood and Northwest schools for thirteen years, an Elementary Diagnostician for one year, and an Elementary Process Coordinator for one year; and

Whereas, Jacklyn Grossenburg has watched her pupils grow, develop, and mature through the knowledge she has imparted to them both as a teacher and as a friend; and

Whereas, Jacklyn Grossenburg has supported her profession as a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, the Mental Health Association of Saline County, of which she is Vice President, the Missouri State Teachers Association, the Missouri School Counselors Association, and the Missouri Counsel of Administrators of Special Education; and

Whereas, Jacklyn Grossenburg has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include her husband, David Grossenburg; two sons, Vance Grossenburg and Seth Grossenburg; and three grandsons:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join Marshall School District in expressing appreciation for the unparalleled service that Jacklyn Grossenburg has rendered to Missouri's children and in wishing her the long, fruitful, and enjoyable retirement that she so justly deserves; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Jacklyn Grossenburg, as a measure of our esteem for her.
