

House Resolution No. 2577

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem all of those individuals who are involved in ensuring that Show-Me State youth obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Lois Turner of Marshall, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction for the manner in which she completed her diverse duties and responsibilities as a cashier and bookkeeper in the food service program of the Marshall School District, a vocational calling that she will draw to a close in well-deserved retirement at the end of the 2006-2007 school year; and

Whereas, employed for twenty-five years by Marshall schools, Lois Turner is an alumna of Marshall High School who subsequently married Charles Turner and raised two daughters, Julie Stockman of Liberty and Jennifer Johnson of Marshall; and

Whereas, Lois Turner has enjoyed watching her extended family grow to include two grandsons and two granddaughters; and

Whereas, a member of First Baptist Church, Lois Turner serves that illustrious religious institution as a Sunday School teacher; and

Whereas, retirement years promise to give Lois Turner more time to enjoy her interests and skills with cooking and flower gardening; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative endeavors in order to recognize such outstanding Missouri citizens as Lois Turner at momentous times in their lives and careers:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered by Lois Turner during her tenure with the Marshall School District of Saline County and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Lois Turner of Marshall, Missouri.
