

House Resolution No. 3757

Whereas, BiltBest Products, Incorporated, in Ste. Genevieve, Missouri, is celebrating the Sixtieth Anniversary of its founding; and

Whereas, BiltBest Products, Incorporated was co-founded by Morris M. Eisenberg in Nassau, New York, in 1947; and

Whereas, now retired, Morris Eisenberg is a member of the Shriners Club, Shaare Emeth, and a former member of the Ste. Genevieve Chamber of Commerce; and

Whereas, said to be one of the original sponsors of the St. Louis Arch, Morris Eisenberg has several United States patents and is currently giving seminars and teaching seniors that they can remember by honing their memory skills; and

Whereas, Morris Eisenberg has also enjoyed recognition by pioneering and contributing to the United Jewish Appeal in Israel; and

Whereas, named Businessman of the Year 1967 by the Small Business Administration, Morris Eisenberg served as the Director of the National Woodwork Manufacturers Association from 1965 to 1967; and

Whereas, Morris Eisenberg has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include his late wife, Loraine Rainey Eisenberg; two daughters, Debra Eisenberg and Sandra Eisenberg; and two grandsons, Zachary Villacencio and Samuel Eisenberg:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the Sixtieth Anniversary of BiltBest Products, Incorporated, and to extend this legislative body's heartfelt best wishes for continued success; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the Sixtieth Anniversary of BiltBest Products, Incorporated, in Ste. Genevieve, Missouri.
