

House Resolution No. 2835

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have dedicated an exceptional amount of time and energy to ensuring that students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Judyth Glaze of Norborne, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a teacher in the Carrollton R-VII School District, a vocational calling that she will draw to a close on July 1, 2007, in well-deserved retirement; and

Whereas, in the field of education for nineteen years, Judyth Glaze has served the Carrollton School District, the Hale R-VII School District, and the Norborne R-VIII School District; and

Whereas, during her tenure with Carrollton schools, Judyth Glaze proved highly successful as a Family, Career and Community Leaders of America advisor, an independent study teacher, and a STAR Event coach; and

Whereas, Judyth Glaze helped ensure the highest standards of conduct and performance in her chosen field of endeavor through her participation in the Missouri State Teachers Association, the Community Teachers Association, MoEFACS, and the Missouri Association for Career and Technical Education; and

Whereas, Judyth Glaze has been highly involved in the Norborne community as a Sunday School teacher and a member of the Centennial and other committees who enjoys watching her grandchildren with their activities and who enjoys gardening, quilting, softball, horseback riding, and cooking; and

Whereas, the beloved wife of J.B. Glaze, Judyth Glaze is justifiably proud also to be known as the loving mother of Jeff and his wife Charmin Glaze and of Jana and her husband Mike Curry; the wonderful grandmother of Sarah Moentmann, Jocelyn Glaze, and Evan Glaze; and a four-time nominee for Who's Who of American Teachers; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative activities in order to recognize such outstanding Missouri educators as Judyth Glaze at momentous times in their lives:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered by Judyth Glaze as an educator and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Judyth Glaze of Norborne, Missouri.
