

House Resolution No. 3224

Whereas, as the 2006-2007 school year draws to a close, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to applaud the career achievements of those individuals who are retiring from the field of education; and

Whereas, the Windsor C-1 School District is losing a valuable member of its faculty with the retirement of Ina Rearden who has devoted several years of her life to the education of this state's young citizens through tireless endeavors as an educator; and

Whereas, Ina Rearden has taught for twenty-nine years at Windsor C-1, where she is held in high esteem as an educator who demonstrates considerable competence and remarkable degrees of compassion and understanding; and

Whereas, deeply committed to the great cause of learning, Ina Rearden has touched the lives of countless youngsters by helping them form a solid educational foundation upon which to build in the future; and

Whereas, Ina Rearden has watched her pupils grow, develop, and mature through the knowledge she has imparted to them both as a teacher and as a friend; and

Whereas, so many young Missourians have left the classrooms of Windsor C-1 fully prepared to face the challenges ahead as a result of the outstanding professional endeavors of Ina Rearden; and

Whereas, Ina Rearden has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include her husband, J.C. Rearden; and two children, Abby and Kirk:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join the Windsor C-1 School District in expressing appreciation for the unparalleled service that Ina Rearden has rendered to Missouri's children and in wishing her the long, fruitful, and enjoyable retirement that she so justly deserves; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Ina Rearden, as a measure of our esteem for her.
