

House Resolution No. 3426

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Autumn Celeste Brown, who is one of the Top Ten students graduating from Crocker High School this spring; and

Whereas, Autumn Celeste Brown, the daughter of Jeff and Mary Brown, has been a member of the FFA (president and chaplain), Soccer Team, FBLA (treasurer), Class Secretary, National Honor Society (president and second vice president), and Trend Mentor; and

Whereas, Crocker High School offers a diverse curriculum, and their outstanding faculty strives to provide a quality educational opportunity that will prepare the students to be effective, self-confident, and responsible citizens in a changing society; and

Whereas, Crocker High School has an enrollment of approximately two hundred and sixty students in grades seven through twelve; and

Whereas, Crocker High School offers a solid college preparatory program with a full range of academic courses, as well as career and vocational education programs and sends students to top colleges and universities:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to applaud the academic achievement of Autumn Celeste Brown, with our wishes for every success in the future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Autumn Celeste Brown.
