

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents whose contributions to educational institutions ensure that students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Jim McCain has attained considerable distinction as the Director of the Physical Plant at Crowder College in Newton County, Missouri; and

Whereas, on May 18, 2007, Jim McCain will enhance his already impressive record of achievement when he receives a Professional Staff Employee of the Year Award from the Anderson Area Chamber of Commerce; and

Whereas, Jim McCain was hired as a maintenance employee at Crowder College in 1983 following a career in the United States Navy and private employment in journeyman maintenance; and

Whereas, Jim McCain earned an Associate's degree with honors from Crowder College and quickly became indispensable to college operations in light of his knowledge, work ethic, and ability to "multi-task"; and

Whereas, in 1990 Jim McCain accepted the duties and responsibilities of Director of the Physical Plant, in which position he is responsible for maintenance, security and safety, ordering supplies, approving bills, custodial services, grounds upkeep, college fleet maintenance, and contracting for remodeling and repair jobs; and

Whereas, Jim McCain also is involved in the planning for new buildings and with maintaining the physical plant budget; and

Whereas, Jim McCain is universally praised for his remarkable ability to remain sane, pleasant, and helpful, even during such stressful times as the severe ice storm of January 2007:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Jim McCain for a Professional Staff Employee of the Year Award from the Anderson Area Chamber of Commerce and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Jim McCain.
