

House Resolution No. 3684

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, James Lang has been distinguished as an intern for the Honorable Rebecca McClanahan, Missouri State Representative from the 2nd District; and

Whereas, James Lang joined the staff of Representative Rebecca McClanahan during the Ninety-fourth General Assembly, First Regular Session, as a part of the Missouri State Intern Program at the State Capitol in Jefferson City, a program designed to involve college students in the legislative process through active participation; and

Whereas, James Lang, an art and English major at the Truman State University and a resident of St. Louis, has experienced the opportunity to observe first-hand the inner workings of state government and has gained valuable insight into the process by which laws are made; and

Whereas, James Lang has successfully demonstrated abilities in the performance of such duties as conducting research, coordinating a District-wide photography contest, conducting tours of the Capitol, demonstrating an insightful understanding of the pertinent issues, serving as legislative aide and session attendant, helping with constituent services including organizing office correspondence, and assuming various other responsibilities to make the office of Representative Rebecca McClanahan run smoothly; and

Whereas, James Lang has earned recognition as a valuable asset to Representative Rebecca McClanahan and the entire Missouri Legislature through the application of the knowledge and skills acquired prior this experience and has attained a variety of new skills which will be of tremendous value in wherever life's path may lead:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, proudly join the Honorable Rebecca McClanahan in commending James Lang for the many important contributions to our State Legislature during the session, and further extend our very best wishes for continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for James Lang, as a measure of our gratitude.
