

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Kevin Supple, who was recently honored by the Missouri Association of School Business Officials as its 2007 Business Official of the Year; and

Whereas, Kevin Supple is the chief financial officer for the Francis Howell School District, a position he has held since January 2005 after twenty-five years in the school finance field; and

Whereas, the Business Official of the Year recognizes an active member of the Association who has demonstrated excellent service to his or her school district, community and profession, and for Kevin Supple, the award recognizes not only his contribution to the Francis Howell School District but also to the University City and Ladue school districts and the Special School District; and

Whereas, Kevin Supple's work for the Francis Howell School District led Moody's Investors Services to upgrade its bond rating from AA3 to A1 in 2006; and

Whereas, the Missouri Association of School Business Officials is a nonprofit association of school administrators and directors focusing on school budgeting and finance; and

Whereas, established in 1952, the Missouri Association of School Business Officials is affiliated with the Association of School Business Officials International, which recently gave the Francis Howell District its Meritorious Budget Award for budget preparation and presentation:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to congratulate Kevin Supple on the illustrious and auspicious occasion of being honored as the Missouri Association of School Business Officials' 2007 Business Official of the Year; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Kevin Supple.
