

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives take tremendous pleasure in recognizing those Show-Me State youths who admirably demonstrate their true potential as lifelong learners and future societal leaders through the excellence of their achievements as high school students; and

Whereas, Adam Griffeth of Ozark, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a senior at Ozark High School where he was voted Most Likely to Succeed by his peers; and

Whereas, Adam Griffeth recently enhanced his already impressive record of achievement when he was one of only ten students selected as Academic All-Stars First Team members in the Springfield News-Leader's 20th Academic All-Star Team competition; and

Whereas, graduating summa cum laude with the Class of 2007, Adam Griffeth has developed and maintained an excellent reputation as captain of both the football and the wrestling teams, a representative for his school at Boys State, a volunteer at the Christian County Family Violence Shelter, an All-Conference and All-District wrestler, and an Eagle Scout; and

Whereas, Adam Griffeth plans to continue his education at the University of Missouri-Rolla by studying ceramics engineering; and

Whereas, judges for the 20th Academic All-Star Team competition included Marci Bowling, director of marketing and development for the Developmental Center of the Ozarks; Kay Holcumbrink, who works with gifted students in the Springfield Public School's Bridges program; Steve Ingalsbe, Pipkin mathematics teacher and the 2006 Springfield Teacher of the Year; Samuel Knox, editor of Unite of southwest Missouri, Michelle West, communications manager of the Springfield Area Chamber of Commerce; Karen Culp, writer for Ozarks Signature and Ozarks Spaces; and Brent Lawrence, Parent and Family editor for the News-Leader and chair of the Academic All-Stars Steering Committee:
