

House Resolution No. 4100

Whereas, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Strauss will commemorate the resplendent occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary on July 14, 2007; and

Whereas, upon attaining this significant milestone in their marriage, Edward and Mildred Strauss will undoubtedly look back some five decades and reminisce about the day they met on a blind date in the Bronx, their courtship, and the beautiful ceremony in which they exchanged their sacred nuptial vows on July 14, 1957, in New York; and

Whereas, in the years since that heavenly day, Edward and Mildred Strauss have had the pleasure of watching their family grow to include three children and their spouses, Marc W. and Wendy Eisenberg Strauss of Peoria, Illinois, Mindy F. Strauss of Manchester, and David J. and Laura Willmann Strauss of St. Charles; and five grandchildren, Aaron E. Strauss, Sarah E. Strauss, Loren K. Strauss, Craig George, and Christopher George

Whereas, Edward Strauss has compiled an impressive list of achievements that includes being a World War II veteran of the United States Navy; earning a Bachelors degree in textile engineering; working with his father as a traveling salesman for a children's clothing company; serving as an electrical engineer with Western Electric and AT&T until his retirement in 1988; and volunteering for various organizations and events; and

Whereas, a devoted wife, loving mother, and exemplary homemaker, Mildred Strauss has further distinguished herself by serving as a bookkeeper for several automobile companies in New York, the Jewish Heritage Center School in Creve Coeur, and the JCCA in Creve Coeur; and by creating beautiful embroidery, crewel, knitting, and crocheting projects; and

Whereas, Edward and Mildred Strauss derive a tremendous amount of spiritual fulfillment through their affiliation with the Traditional Congregation, a place of worship that has special meaning to them as active and cherished members; and

Whereas, Edward and Mildred Strauss have made a spirited effort to keep their relationship fresh and alive, and have cherished each other every day in sickness and in health with the love so deep in their hearts:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Edward and Mildred Strauss and in wishing them only the best as they continue their journey together walking hand-in-hand along life's path; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Strauss.
