

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have proven to be exemplary citizens in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Hugh Cerutti of Farmington, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as the Senior Pastor of First Assembly of God, a spiritual calling that he will draw to a close on August 31, 2007, in well-deserved retirement after a grand total of thirty-eight years of service at the church; and

Whereas, the former pastor of the Assembly of God church in Affton, Iowa, for four years, Hugh Cerutti is well-versed in preparing and preaching three services each week; and

Whereas, Pastor Hugh Cerutti also has developed and maintained an excellent reputation for the quality and inspiration of his funerals, weddings, baby dedications, and other types of special services; and

Whereas, an outstanding administrator, Pastor Hugh Cerutti visits the sick, hosts a daily radio devotion on KREI in Farmington, and is a true friend to all who meet him; and

Whereas, Hugh Cerutti has accepted such additional duties and responsibilities as serving as Presbyter of the Flat River section, sitting on the Executive Presbyter Board at the Assembly of God headquarters in Springfield, and participating in local Ministerial Alliance activities; and

Whereas, Hugh Cerutti is justifiably proud to be known as the loving father of David of the United States Army chaplain corps; Mark, Lennice, and Paula of Farmington; and Lemora of Georgia; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative endeavors in order to recognize such outstanding Missouri citizens as Hugh Cerutti at momentous times in their lives:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered down through the years by Hugh Cerutti and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as he partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Hugh Cerutti of Farmington, Missouri.
