

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Amanda Muckerman, of St. Charles County, Missouri, who was recently featured in a “Spotlight on Education” item in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch; and

Whereas, Amanda Muckerman is a senior student at Francis Howell Union High School, who is currently first in her class and intends to be the first in her generation of her family to graduate from high school; and

Whereas, Amanda Muckerman plans to attend Lindenwood University next fall, and while she has not yet decided whether to major in interior design, culinary studies or photography, she wants to minor in business; and

Whereas, Amanda Muckerman serves on the Principal’s Committee, helps in the school’s store, and is a member of Union’s Renaissance program; and

Whereas, Amanda Muckerman is the treasured granddaughter of Louise Brockman and the beloved sister of Zsantae, Bridget, Kristopher, Nicholas, Emily, and Sara:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our sincerest congratulations to Amanda Muckerman on the occasion of her being chosen for inclusion in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch and to wish her every success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Amanda Muckerman.
