Offered By

1 AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 765,
2 Section 72.080, Page 3, Line 83 by inserting after all of said Section and Line the following:

3
4 "115.087. 1. In each county which does not have a board of election commissioners, the election
5 judges shall be selected from lists provided by the county committee of each major political party 6 or if no such adequate list is provided by the county committee, then the judges chosen for the 7 political party or parties whose county committee failed to provide an adequate list may be 8 selected as authorized pursuant to section 115.081. Not later than December tenth in each year in 9 which county committeemen are elected, the county committee of each major political party shall 10 submit to the election authority a list of persons qualified to serve as election judges in double the 11 number required to hold a general election in the county. For each election, the election authority
12 shall select and appoint the number of judges required to hold the election. If a county committee 13 fails to present the prescribed number of names of qualified persons by the time prescribed, the 14 election authority may select and appoint the number of judges provided by law for the county
15 committee's party. If the election authority deems any person on a list to be unqualified, the 16 election authority may request the county committee which submitted the list to furnish another 17 name.

18 2. The state chairperson of each established political party may, in jurisdictions where no 19 county committee exists and where the county clerk is the election authority, submit a list of
