

House Resolution No. 119

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have proven down through the years to be exemplary citizens in local communities and neighborhoods through the excellence of their civic involvement and educational leadership; and

Whereas, Cynthia L. Crabtree of Republic, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as the principal of the Elementary-III School in the Republic R-III School District of Greene County; and

Whereas, Cindy Crabtree recently enhanced her already impressive record of achievement when she was named as the Woman of the Year by the Republic Business and Community Women; and

Whereas, a graduate of Willow Springs High School, Cindy Crabtree prepared for her educational roles by earning a Bachelor of Science degree in education from the College of the Ozarks and a Master's degree in education administration and a Specialist degree in education from Missouri State University; and

Whereas, Cindy Crabtree gained invaluable experience in earlier work with Clever public schools, ABC's and 123's Preschool, and Republic school's Parents as Teachers program, AmeriCorps program, and first-grade classrooms; and

Whereas, Cindy Crabtree is a member of First Baptist Church in Republic, where she has served as a Sunday School teacher, Sunday School class director, nursery director, chairman of the activities committee, and member of the personnel committee and the pastoral search committee; and

Whereas, Cindy Crabtree also is active as the secretary for the Board of Directors of People Helping People, a member of the Missouri Association of Elementary School Principals, and a member of the National Association of Elementary School Principals; and

Whereas, the beloved wife of David Crabtree, Cindy Crabtree is justifiably proud also to be known as the loving mother of Jeremy and Chris-Anne Crabtree and of Christopher Crabtree:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Cindy Crabtree as the Woman of the Year by the Republic Business and Community Women and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued success in life for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Cynthia L. Crabtree of Republic, Missouri.
