

House Resolution No. 236

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State youths who admirably demonstrate their potential as lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders through their accomplishments as students; and

Whereas, Jeremy Armstrong has attained considerable distinction as a student at Herndon Career Center Academy in Raytown, Missouri; and

Whereas, during his time at Herndon Career Center Academy, Jeremy Armstrong represented career and technical education in Washington, DC, at the SkillsUSA Washington Leadership Training Institute and job shadowed at the Federal Emergency Management Agency and the Department of Homeland Security; and

Whereas, Jeremy Armstrong has future plans to intern at the Department of Homeland Security; and

Whereas, Herndon Career Center Academy is overseen by the Regional Cisco Academy at Metropolitan Community College--Business and Technology; and

Whereas, since 1997 the Regional Cisco Academy has forged unique partnerships with education, government, business, and communities to generate opportunities for students to become highly trained and technically savvy in order to foster personal success for individuals and long-term economic growth for the United States; and

Whereas, with more than fifty Academies in the state of Missouri, Cisco provides opportunities for 2,400 students to develop the IT and networking skills necessary to compete in a twenty-first century global economy and to innovate and lead economic development in the state; and

Whereas, Jeremy Armstrong will receive public honors and accolades on January 28, 2008, when he is recognized for his accomplishments at the Cisco Networking Academy 10th Anniversary Salute that will be held in the capitol rotunda in Jefferson City:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and academic accomplishments garnered thus far in life by Jeremy Armstrong and to convey this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Jeremy Armstrong.
