

House Resolution No. 269

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have proven down through the years to be exemplary citizens in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Kathryn Potter of Wellington, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction through her selection as "Alum of the Year" by the Wellington-Napoleon R-IX Kids First Education Foundation; and

Whereas, Kathryn Potter will receive her Alum of the Year award on Saturday, February 2, 2008; and

Whereas, Kathryn Potter moved to rural Wellington with her family when she was four years of age, after which time she attended Fairview School and Wellington High School; and

Whereas, a 1949 graduate of Wellington High School, Kathryn Potter has remained a lifelong supporter of the school district and its many educational programs and opportunities; and

Whereas, a former employee of Wellington Bank, Kathryn Potter worked for the Skelton and Bradley law firm in Lexington for a number of years until she returned to Wellington Bank in 1968, subsequently worked for Lafayette County Bank, and eventually completed a twenty-eight-year-long career in the banking business; and

Whereas, the former Kathryn Drewel married Karl Potter on March 4, 1951, to begin a marital union that would be richly blessed with the love and affection of their children, Dennis and Bonnie Potter and Jim and Kathy Potter; foster children, Brenda Prince Blum and Kathleen Prince; grandchildren, Rachel, Rebekah and Justin, Sarah, Shelby, Benjamin and Sarah, and Susan and Justin; and great-grandchild, Kate; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative actions in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of such outstanding Missouri citizens as Kathryn Potter:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Kathryn Potter as the Alum of the Year by the Wellington-Napoleon R-IX Kids First Education Foundation and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Kathryn Potter of Wellington, Missouri.
