

House Resolution No. 438

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have proven down through the years to be exemplary citizens in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Bob Monnig of Glasgow, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as his hometown's Citizen of the Year; and

Whereas, named as the Glasgow Citizen of the Year at the January 19, 2008, Town and Country Event, Bob Monnig is a lifelong resident of the town, which he served for ten years as mayor; and

Whereas, Bob Monnig has developed and maintained an excellent reputation as an entrepreneurial businessman who started and operated numerous businesses, including an implement store, a lumber yard, a sawmill, the Monnig Industries galvanizing plant, the Havens Cooling Towers manufacturer of industrial air conditioning units, and the Hawthorne Division of Kellwood Company; and

Whereas, Bob Monnig also constructed speculation buildings that later became important industries and businesses, including Penny Plate, IGA, Glasgow Community Bowling Lanes, and La Crosse Lumber Company; and

Whereas, Bob Monnig donated land for the high school track and helped establish the Glasgow Museum, Beverly Living Center, Monnig subdivision, Rivertown Apartment complex and Glasgow Overlook by the Missouri River in downtown Glasgow; and

Whereas, no stranger to honors and accolades, Bob Monnig was selected as the Northwestern Missouri Small Business Person of the Year by the Small Business Administration of Kansas City; and

Whereas, Bob Monnig is justifiably proud also to be known as the beloved husband of Martha Monnig and the loving father of Tim, Tom, John, Ron, Linda, and Jeff:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Bob Monnig as the Glasgow Citizen of the Year and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Bob Monnig of Glasgow, Missouri.
