

House Resolution No. 856

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State school districts that admirably ensure that students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Windsor C-1 School District in Imperial, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction through its selection for the 2008 Commissioner's Award for High Quality Professional Development from the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education; and

Whereas, Windsor C-1 School District will receive its 2008 Commissioner's Award for High Quality Professional Development on March 17, 2008, at the Show Me Professional Development Conference; and

Whereas, in light of the high level of professional development garnered by the certificated staff in the Windsor C-1 School District, the administration of the school district has been asked to present a session at the conference related to professional development design and delivery; and

Whereas, Windsor C-1 School District also deserves mention of its diligence in incorporating the standards of the National Staff Development Council in its day-to-day professional development activities; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative actions in order to acknowledge milestone events in the histories of such outstanding Missouri educational institutions as the Windsor C-1 School District:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of the Windsor C-1 School District for a 2008 Commissioner's Award for High Quality Professional Development from the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education and to convey to all of those involved this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of the Windsor C-1 School District of Imperial, Missouri.
