

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Mike Sellenschuetter, who was favored at the 3rd Annual St. Charles Business Magazine banquet held on February 13, 2008, at The Columns Banquet Center in St. Charles, Missouri, as a St. Charles Business Magazine Honors Program Honoree; and

Whereas, Mike Sellenschuetter is the treasurer of Life Skills, which for more than forty-four years has connected individuals with disabilities to the St. Louis community and assisted them to live and work with dignity; and

Whereas, today, Life Skills serves more than 1,400 adults and teens each year to live in their own home or apartment, to find and keep a job, to make friends, and to access all the community has to offer; and

Whereas, the St. Charles Business Magazine's Honors Program was devised to recognize St. Charles County non-profit executives, employees, board members, volunteers, youth, and donors:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to applaud the efforts of Mike Sellenschuetter and to extend our gratitude to him for his tireless efforts and generosity; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mike Sellenschuetter.
