

House Resolution No. 1651

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives honor treasured residents of the Show-Me State who have experienced the joys and blessings of a prosperous marriage; and

Whereas, fifty years ago on April 4, 1958, Cecil Krigbaum took the hand of his beautiful bride, Charlene Clark, as they began their commitment to a lifetime of shared love and devotion by exchanging wedding vows during a solemn ceremony at the home of the Reverend John Golden of Hannibal, Missouri; and

Whereas, in the years since that heavenly day, Cecil and Charlene Krigbaum have had the pleasure of watching their family grow to include two children, Janice Cummins and her husband, Roy, and Ronnie Krigbaum; two grandchildren, Andrew Cummins and Amy Beth Myers; and three great-grandchildren, Maggie Cummins, Hunter Myers, and Abigail Conover; and

Whereas, Cecil Krigbaum is known as a dedicated family man who generously provided his loved ones with a comfortable home and secure future through his successful endeavors as an employee of Handy-Top, Incorporated, from which he is now retired; and

Whereas, a devoted wife, loving mother, and outstanding homemaker, Charlene Krigbaum further distinguished herself by working at Cerff Brothers in Vandalia and Avery's in Laddonia prior to her retirement; and

Whereas, members of South Side Baptist Church, Cecil and Charlene Krigbaum have found the road to happiness by putting all of their energy, love, and ambition into their marriage and by knowing that a successful union is built upon such strong qualities as sacrifice, dedication, and honesty; and

Whereas, Mr. and Mrs. Krigbaum, residents of Vandalia, commemorated the glorious occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary on April 4, 2008:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Cecil and Charlene Krigbaum for their tremendous success in achieving a half century of wedded bliss and in wishing them only the very best as they continue their journey walking hand-in-hand along life's path; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Krigbaum, as a measure of the high esteem in which we hold them.
