

House Resolution No. 1769

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of Show-Me State youths who admirably demonstrate their true potential as lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders through the excellence of their achievements as students; and

Whereas, Viviana Ochola Delgado of Kansas City, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a fifth-grade student at Trailwoods K-8 School in Kansas City; and

Whereas, Viviana Delgado recently enhanced her already impressive record of achievement when a poster that she designed took Third Place in the state-level competition of the National Missing Children's Poster Contest; and

Whereas, the National Missing Children's Poster Contest is judged at the local level by individual schools, at the state level by the Missouri Missing Persons Clearinghouse of the Missouri Highway Patrol Missing Persons Unit, and at the national level by the federal Department of Justice; and

Whereas, the theme for the 2008 National Missing Children's Poster Contest is "Bring Our Children Home" in light of the plight of thousands of children who are throwaways, runaways, abandoned, or taken; and

Whereas, the National Missing Children's Poster Contest also is intended to rejoice in those many children who return safely home; and

Whereas, in 2007 the state of Missouri had 8,662 children reported missing, of whom 446 children were still missing at year's end; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative actions in order to recognize such outstanding Missouri students as Viviana Delgado at momentous times in their lives:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Viviana Delgado as a Third Place finisher in the National Missing Children's Poster Contest and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Viviana Ochola Delgado of Kansas City, Missouri.
