Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State youths who admirably demonstrate their true potential as lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders through the excellence of their achievements as students; and

Whereas, Eric Rexroat has attained considerable distinction as a senior at Union High School in the Francis Howell R-III School District of Saint Charles County; and

Whereas, an "A" student for the past two years, Eric Rexroat will graduate with a high school diploma in May 2008 before heading to Southeast Missouri State University in Cape Girardeau in order to study history and to earn a teaching certificate in secondary education; and

Whereas, originally with no plans for college, Eric Rexroat decided that a college path was necessary in order to be a positive influence on young people who are struggling in life; and

Whereas, Eric Rexroat grew to enjoy reading in Union High School English classes, and last year he participated in Cadet Teaching at Independence Elementary School in partial fulfillment of his Renaissance class; and

Whereas, when not actively engaged in his studies, Eric Rexroat enjoys playing video games, reading, watching old movies, and playing football and basketball; and

Whereas, Eric Rexroat is justifiably proud also to be known as the son of Phil and Laura Rexroat and the brother of Andrew, Alison, and Emma; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative actions in order to encourage and congratulate such outstanding Missouri students as Eric Rexroat:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and academic accomplishments garnered thus far in the life of Eric Rexroat and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as he continues his studies at Southeast Missouri State University in Cape Girardeau; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Eric Rexroat of Saint Charles.
