

House Resolution No. 2164

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives proudly pause to recognize those special young people who have exemplified the finest qualities of citizenship and leadership by taking an active part in state government; and

Whereas, Bryan Reinhart, a senior majoring in business at the University of Missouri-Columbia, has distinguished himself as an Intern for the Honorable Rod Jetton, State Representative from District No. 156; and

Whereas, Bryan Reinhart joined Kay Fitzpatrick, Aaron Willard, Kenney Ross, Nathan Dampf, Betty Pringer, and fellow intern, Hillary Shoun, the staff of Speaker Jetton, for the Second Regular Session of the Ninety-fourth General Assembly as part of the Missouri State Intern Program at the state capitol in Jefferson City, a program designed to involve college students in the legislative process through active participation; and

Whereas, Bryan Reinhart has experienced the opportunity to observe firsthand the inner workings of state government and has gained valuable insight into the process by which laws are made; and

Whereas, Bryan Reinhart has successfully demonstrated his abilities in the performance of such duties as conducting research, serving as legislative aide and session attendant, helping with constituent services, creating an e-mail distribution list to reach as many teachers across the state as possible, and assuming various other responsibilities to make the office of Speaker Jetton run as smoothly as possible; and

Whereas, to maintain his physical health, Bryan Reinhart made innumerable trips to Legislative Research to retrieve resolutions, escorted visitors to the top of the Dome, and made sure the refrigerator was stocked with Perrier, orange juice, and water: and

Whereas, the son of John and Diane Reinhart, and the brother of John, Bryan Reinhart has earned recognition as a valuable asset to Speaker Jetton and the entire Missouri Legislature through the application of knowledge and skills acquired prior to his tenure as an Intern and a variety of visible new skills which will be of tremendous value in the job market after his graduation on May 16, 2008:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, hereby proudly join the Honorable Rod Jetton in commending Bryan Reinhart for his many important contributions to our State Legislature during the current session, and further extend to him our very best wishes for continued success and happiness in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Bryan Reinhart, as a measure of our deep gratitude.

Offered by Speaker Rod Jetton
District No. 156

I, Rod Jetton, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, Second Regular Session, do certify that the above is a true and correct copy of House Resolution No. 2164, adopted April 23, 2008.
