

House Resolution No. 2193

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have proven down through the years to be exemplary citizens in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Leah Rolfson has attained considerable distinction as a music educator who teaches fifth- through eighth-grade orchestra and high school choir; and

Whereas, on May 3, 2008, Leah Rolfson will be named as the 2008 Educator of the Year by the Centralia Chamber of Commerce; and

Whereas, Leah Rolfson is a member of the Missouri Music Educators Association, was a First Student accompanist for the 1988 Colorado All-State Choir, and was a concertmaster for Baylor University; and

Whereas, Leah Rolfson prepared for her educational leadership endeavors by earning a Bachelor of Music Education degree and a Master of Arts degree in curriculum and instruction; and

Whereas, the beloved wife of David, Leah Rolfson is justifiably proud also to be known as the loving mother of Kaitlyn and William; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative actions in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of such outstanding Missouri citizens as Leah Rolfson:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments associated with Leah Rolfson and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt congratulations upon receiving 2008 Educator of the Year recognition from the Centralia Chamber of Commerce; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Leah Rolfson of Centralia, Missouri.
