

House Resolution No. 2673

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators whose significant contributions of time and energy help ensure that students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Marge Dill of Chillicothe, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a teacher and coach in the Brookfield R-III School District, a vocational calling that she will draw to a close on May 21, 2008, in well-deserved retirement after seven years of service; and

Whereas, an educator for thirty-three years, Marge Dill previously worked for twenty-six years in the Morrison School District of Illinois; and

Whereas, Marge Dill is universally praised for her work with seventh-grade girls basketball, middle school softball, such service-learning projects as nursing home visits and the Thanksgiving Feast for veterans and senior citizens, such cross-curricular activities as Greek Olympics for the fifth- and sixth-grade track and field days, TA Challenge, and teacher wellness; and

Whereas, Marge Dill is a member of the Missouri Alliance of Health, Physical Education, and Dance and the American Alliance of Health, Physical Education, and Dance; and

Whereas, Marge Dill is justifiably proud to be known as the beloved wife of Charlie Dill and loving mother of Charlie Dill and Kim Dill; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its constitutionally mandated duties and responsibilities in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of such outstanding Missouri citizens as Marge Dill:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered thus far in the life and work of Marge Dill and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Marge Dill of Chillicothe, Missouri.
