

House Resolution No. 2723

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize the outstanding organizations and individuals who have contributed to the well-being of the citizens of this great state; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Alexander Jonathan "A.J." Lynn, of Bolivar, Missouri, who has been named the Junior Ambassador for the Southwest Region of the American Diabetes Association; and

Whereas, A.J. Lynn is a second-grade student at Bolivar Elementary School and a member of the Bolivar Methodist Church; and

Whereas, in his role as the Junior Ambassador for the American Diabetes Association, A.J. Lynn will help educate people about diabetes and the Association's efforts to find a cure; and

Whereas, a sports enthusiast, A.J. Lynn is active in baseball, soccer, and basketball, and he aspires to playing football; and

Whereas, the beloved son of Jonathan and Kelli Lynn, A.J. Lynn is the beloved brother of Ashton Hope Lynn and treasured grandson of Don and Betty Lynn of Kennett, Missouri, and Gerald and Joan Foster of Sumner, Missouri:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our congratulations to A.J. Lynn on the occasion of his being honored as the Junior Ambassador for the American Diabetes Association; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Alexander Jonathan "A.J." Lynn.
