

House Resolution No. 3117

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has demonstrated exceptional skill as a leader of her peers; and

Whereas, Corinne Seckinger of Fenton, Missouri, recently received the Claire's International DECA Scholarship in the amount of $1,000 during the 2008 International DECA Career Development Conference held in Atlanta, Georgia; and

Whereas, DECA's outstanding corporate partners provide more than $250,000 in scholarships to deserving DECA members so they can advance their education in marketing, management, and entrepreneurship to be successful in the global industry of today; and

Whereas, Missouri marketing and cooperative education's co-curricular philosophy closely integrates classroom instruction, DECA, and work-based experiences allowing students opportunities to apply classroom knowledge in realistic, problem-based settings; and

Whereas, an outstanding student at Rockwood Summit High School in Fenton where she has been named to National Honor Society, semi-finalist of the Greater St. Louis Science Fair, state qualifier for DECA State CDC, and Falcon Flight Award recipient, Corinne Seckinger receives this scholarship on the basis of DECA involvement, community service, scholastic record, leadership ability and interest in marketing, management and entrepreneurship; and

Whereas, Corinne Seckinger holds local, state, and international DECA membership and takes pride in the enviable list of achievements she has acquired at Rockwood Summit High School as a member of Chamber Choir, Prom Committee, Freshman Mentors, Renaissance Steering Committee, Renaissance Academic Team, Speech and Debate, International Club, and People to People Student Ambassadors; and

Whereas, Corinne Seckinger has achieved her every ambition with the love, support, and encouragement she has continually received from her proud and loving parents Peggy Fletcher and Gary Fletcher, and her sibling, Lee Seckinger:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join together with the staff and student body at Rockwood Summit High School in extending our most hearty congratulations to Corinne Seckinger at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Corinne Seckinger, as she is honored at the Missouri Governor's Mansion in Jefferson City on May 23, 2008.
