

House Resolution No. 3371

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State high school athletic programs that truly embody the highest standards of teamwork, sportsmanship, training, and perseverance throughout the competitive season; and

Whereas, Scott City High School sponsors a baseball program whose 2008 team took First Place in the Missouri State High School Activities Association Class 2 state championships, which were held in Springfield, Missouri; and

Whereas, the Scott City Rams became state champions by beating Barstow on May 29, 2008, by a score of 13-3 to take home the school's first state-level First Place trophy in any sport; and

Whereas, Scott City players on the 2007-2008 championship team consisted of seniors Cody Carlyle and Ryan Modglin; juniors Shae Simmons, Austin Brawley, Caleb Gray, Jake Campbell, Cody Page, Clayton Hall, Josh Henson, Jaris Hye, and Tyler Morrison; sophomores Skylar Cobb and Zach Pobst; and freshmen Justin Modglin, Austin Raines, Chris Limbaugh, and Jamie Scholz; and

Whereas, the Scott City Rams were astutely guided by head coach Lance Amick with help from assistant coaches Lynn Ward and Cody Bova and manager Chris Whites; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse daily activities in order to acknowledge milestone events in the histories of such outstanding Missouri high school athletic programs as the Scott City High School baseball Rams:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the history, goals, and accomplishments associated with the Scott City High School baseball program and to convey to the 2008 Rams team this legislative body's most heartfelt congratulations upon taking First Place at the Class 2 state championships; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of the Scott City High School baseball program.
