

House Resolution No. 4218

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educational institutions that have proven down through the years to be exemplary components of local communities and neighborhoods through the excellence of their services and programming; and

Whereas, the Hancock Place School District has attained considerable distinction since its founding at the beginning of the twentieth century; and

Whereas, the Hancock Place School District recently enhanced its already impressive record of achievement when it was named as the 2008 recipient of the Community Service Award by the Lemay Chamber of Commerce; and

Whereas, with approximately 250 employees, the Hancock Place School District is guided by Superintendent of Schools Greg Clark, Assistant Superintendent Lisa Charles, Director of Finance Paul Northington, Elementary Principal Debbie Kyle, Middle School Principal Scott Wilkerson, High School Principal Jeff Buscher, and a Board of Education comprised of President Kevin Johnson, Vice President Tammy Tobin, Secretary Lisa Dunn, Treasurer Deidra Woods, and Directors Joe McLafferty, Jean Parshall, and Rhonda Stratman; and

Whereas, the Hancock Place School District provides comprehensive educational services for pre-kindergarten through twelfth-grade students that includes standard education, tutoring programs, gifted education, special education, and traditional educational counseling programs; and

Whereas, the Hancock Place School District also sponsors health and crisis intervention services that include an on-site medical clinic, on-site dental checkups and services through the eighth grade, hearing and vision screenings for students through the fifth grade, and contracted mental health services through regional agencies; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse daily activities in order to acknowledge milestone events in the histories of such outstanding Missouri educational institutions as the Hancock Place School District:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of the Hancock Place School District for the Community Service Award from the Lemay Chamber of Commerce and to convey to all of those involved this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of the Hancock Place School District.
