

House Resolution No. 4344

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to acknowledge a momentous occasion in the life of one of the Show-Me State's most beloved senior citizens; and

Whereas, Elsie L. Miller, a treasured resident of Platte City, Missouri, commemorated the resplendent occasion of her One Hundredth Birthday on October 2, 2008; and

Whereas, Elsie Miller came into this world in Platte City on October 2, 1908, as the tiny infant daughter born to proud and loving parents William and Cora Alice Sharp, who welcomed her into their hearts as a precious gift from God; and

Whereas, Elsie received her education at Buckeye Grade School and Camden Point High School, and embarked upon a new and exciting chapter in her life when she married her beloved Edward E. Miller on April 5, 1931, a kind and loving gentleman who enjoyed every moment of her company until his passing from this world in 1966; and

Whereas, a former resident of Independence and Dearborn, Elsie Miller found employment at the Lake City Ammunition Plant where she worked until her retirement; and

Whereas, a devout member of the Baptist Church, Elsie Miller has been abundantly blessed with the love and admiration of a wonderful family whose members include her niece, Joanne Ray; her nephew's wife, Anna Mary Chesnut; and her great-nephew, two great-nieces, five great-great-nieces and nephews, and many friends; and

Whereas, now one hundred years young, Elsie Miller faces the beginning of each day with renewed hope and happiness and continues to lead a good Christian life, sharing her experiences and exciting stories of times gone by with her friends at the Hillview Nursing and Rehab Center where she now resides:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to Elsie Miller as she proudly celebrates one hundred years of achievement, and in wishing her much peace and prosperity as she continues her journey along life's path; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Elsie L. Miller, as a mark of our esteem for her.
