

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Kansas City citizens Wayne Hubbard and Candice Price, who are the creators of “Urban American Outdoors”, a national television program featuring lavish excursions and extravagant safaris and the winner of over twenty national and international broadcast awards; and

Whereas, “Urban American Outdoors” has several professional staff members located in Kansas City, as well as around the country, who participate in unique adventures in the outdoors, such as diving in the South Pacific, skiing in Colorado, sailing in the Caribbean, or hunting and fishing in various location through the United States; and

Whereas, “Urban American Outdoors” won the prestigious 2006 Accolade Competition for its exciting episode entitled “Day of Paradise, South Pacific”, which presents the historic scuba dive of twenty African-Americans diving on Japanese World War II wreckage; and

Whereas, “Urban American Outdoors” is also the proud winner of the 2006 MIDI Award for Community Programming, as well as first and second place for excellence in programming at the 49th Annual Meeting of the Mid America Cable Telecommunications Association; and

Whereas, “Urban American Outdoors” is filming a show on the importance of conservation and county-by-country deer-season control featuring lawmakers who love the outdoors, and it promotes the “Share the Harvest” program, which covers the cost of a whole deer donated during urban-county deer season, with the goal of feeding the hungry; and

Whereas, “Urban American Outdoors” is the proud sponsor of the Urban American Outdoors Youth Club, which advocates growing up in the outdoors and participating in sports, because today more than ever, kids need help, support, and guidance in their lives to help them reach adulthood and become successful citizens:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our congratulations and our best wishes for continued success to Wayne Hubbard and Candice Price; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Wayne Hubbard and Candice Price, as a measure of our esteem.
