COMMITTEE OF ORIGIN: Committee on Judiciary

This substitute changes the laws regarding court procedures. In its main provisions, the substitute:

(1) Repeals the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act and establishes in its place, the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. The act specifies the procedures, priorities, and factors to be considered in initial custody jurisdiction determinations, continuing jurisdiction determinations, modification of custody determinations, and emergency orders. Family access orders may be filed relating to establishment or modification of custody or visitation including, but not limited to, dissolution, modification, third-party visitation, or paternity;

(5) Removes the 30-day provision regarding court summons and requires a defendant to appear within 10 days. Currently, a court summons requires a defendant to appear before an associate circuit judge no less than 10 days nor more than 30 days from the date the summons was delivered;

(6) Allows, beginning January 1, 2010, a corporation to file a corporate registration report on a biennial basis and to change the month of its corporate registration report by designating the desired month and paying an additional $20 fee. Currently, the Secretary of State may commence a proceeding if the report is not delivered within 30 days after it is due;

(9) Allows the Secretary of State to administratively cancel the articles of organization of limited liability companies and limited liability partnerships if the period of duration on the articles expires and the company or partnership does not amend the articles in a timely manner. The Secretary of State may rescind a cancellation under certain circumstances;

(10) Allows anyone 18 years of age or older who was found incompetent under Section 632, RSMo, by admission either voluntary or involuntarily into a mental health facility, to petition the probate court for a removal of the disqualification to purchase, possess, or transfer a firearm. Individuals must prove that they no longer suffer from the condition that rendered them incompetent and that they pose no danger to themselves or others;

(14) Changes certain caseload reporting requirements for municipal and associate circuit court judges;

(15) Allows a court to take certain specified measures to protect a child when the court finds that there is credible evidence of a potential risk of international abduction of the child by a parent. Factors that the court should consider in determining whether to take one or more measures are specified;

(16) Allows providers of targeted case management clients in the Division of Developmental Disabilities within the Department of Mental Health to be treated as agents of the division;

(17) Allows an individual who is 17 years of age to file for an adult order of protection and extends the time period for which an order of protection may be valid from one year to up to three years;
