AN ACT

To repeal section 194.119, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to the final disposition of deceased military personnel.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 194.119, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 194.119, to read as follows:

194.119. 1. As used in this section, the term "right of sepulcher" means the right to choose and control the burial, cremation, or other final disposition of a dead human body.

2. For purposes of this chapter and chapters 193, 333, and 436, RSMo, and in all cases relating to the custody, control, and disposition of deceased human remains, including the common law right of sepulcher, where not otherwise defined, the term "next-of-kin" means the following persons in the priority listed if such person is eighteen years of age or older, is mentally competent, and is willing to assume responsibility for the costs of disposition:

(1) An attorney in fact designated in a durable power of attorney wherein the deceased specifically granted the right of sepulcher over his or her body to such attorney in fact;

(2) For a decedent who was on active duty in the United States military at the time of death, the person designated by such decedent in the written instrument known as the United States Department of Defense Form 93, Record of Emergency Data, in accordance with P.L. 109-163, Section 564, 10 U.S.C. Section 1482;

(3) The surviving spouse;

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

15           ~~[(3)]~~ (4) Any surviving child of the deceased. If a surviving child is less than eighteen
16 years of age and has a legal or natural guardian, such child shall not be disqualified on the basis
17 of the child's age and such child's legal or natural guardian, if any, shall be entitled to serve in 18 the place of the child unless such child's legal or natural guardian was subject to an action in 19 dissolution from the deceased. In such event the person or persons who may serve as next-of-kin
20 shall serve in the order provided in subdivisions ~~[(4) to (8)]~~ (5) to (9) of this subsection;

21           ~~[(4)]~~ (5) (a) Any surviving parent of the deceased; or

22                   (b) If the deceased is a minor, a surviving parent who has custody of the minor; or

23                   (c) If the deceased is a minor and the deceased's parents have joint custody, the parent
24 whose residence is the minor child's residence for purposes of mailing and education;

25           ~~[(5)]~~ (6) Any surviving sibling of the deceased;

26           ~~[(6)]~~ (7) The next nearest surviving relative of the deceased by consanguinity or affinity;

27           ~~[(7)]~~ (8) Any person or friend who assumes financial responsibility for the disposition
28 of the deceased's remains if no next-of-kin assumes such responsibility;

29           ~~[(8)]~~ (9) The county coroner or medical examiner; provided however that such 30 assumption of responsibility shall not make the coroner, medical examiner, the county, or the 31 state financially responsible for the cost of disposition.

32           3. The next-of-kin of the deceased shall be entitled to control the final disposition of the 33 remains of any dead human being consistent with all applicable laws, including all applicable
34 health codes.

35           4. A funeral director or establishment is entitled to rely on and act according to the 36 lawful instructions of any person claiming to be the next-of-kin of the deceased; provided 37 however, in any civil cause of action against a funeral director or establishment licensed pursuant 38 to this chapter for actions taken regarding the funeral arrangements for a deceased person in the 39 director's or establishment's care, the relative fault, if any, of such funeral director or 40 establishment may be reduced if such actions are taken in reliance upon a person's claim to be 41 the deceased person's next-of-kin.

42           5. Any person who desires to exercise the right of sepulcher and who has knowledge of 43 an individual or individuals with a superior right to control disposition shall notify such 44 individual or individuals prior to making final arrangements.

45           6. If an individual with a superior claim is personally served with written notice from a 46 person with an inferior claim that such person desires to exercise the right of sepulcher and the 47 individual so served does not object within forty-eight hours of receipt, such individual shall be
48 deemed to have waived such right. An individual with a superior right may also waive such right 49 at any time if such waiver is in writing and dated.

50           7. If there is more than one person in a class who are equal in priority and the funeral
51 director has no knowledge of any objection by other members of such class, the funeral director
52 or establishment shall be entitled to rely on and act according to the instructions of the first such 53 person in the class to make arrangements; provided that such person assumes responsibility for 54 the costs of disposition and no other person in such class provides written notice of his or her 55 objection.
