

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 95th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

---

SIXTY-SEVENTH DAY, MONDAY, MAY 10, 2010

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Pratt in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend James Earl Jackson.

The heavens proclaim Your glory, Lord God. The skies display Your craftsmanship. Be exalted in Your strength and we will speak of Your power.

Your laws are perfect, Lord God. They protect us, make us wise, and give us joy and light. Your laws are pure, eternal, just, and clear, giving insight for living. Reverence for You is pure, lasting forever. Your laws are true; each one is fair.

Lord God, as we draw to the end of another Session, we are mindful of the grace, mercy and wisdom You so liberally showered upon us. We boast not in our own ingenuity, intellect or wisdom. But we boast in the name of the Lord our God Who sustained, guided and protected us through this Session. We also give thanks for Your watchful eye and loving hand upon our families during the period of time we were absent from them.

We commit the remaining days of this Session to You that Your plans and purposes may be established. As we continue in our work for this week, we count on You to direct our thoughts, words and actions. May our thinking be clear and accurate. Show us what is good; not just what looks good.

Now, may the words of our mouth and the meditation of our heart be pleasing to You, O LORD, our Rock and our Redeemer.

I ask these things, in the name of Your Son. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Jenna Darr, Alex Forrest, Maggie Parker and Sam Avery.

The Journal of the sixty-sixth day was approved as printed by the following vote:

Which motion was adopted.

THIRD READING OF SENATE BILL

HCS SB 791, relating to utilities, was taken up by Representative Emery.

Representative Emery offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 791, Section 250.233, Page 6, Line 11, by inserting after all of said section, page, and line the following:

“386.210. 1. The commission may confer in person, or by correspondence, by attending conventions, or in any other way, with the members of the public, any public utility or similar commission of this and other states and the United States of America, or any official, agency or instrumentality thereof, on any matter relating to the performance of its duties.

2. Such communications may address any issue that at the time of such communication is not the subject of a case that has been filed with the commission.

3. Such communications may also address substantive or procedural matters that are the subject of a pending filing or case in which no evidentiary hearing has been scheduled, provided that the communication:

(1) Is made at a public agenda meeting of the commission where such matter has been posted in advance as an item for discussion or decision;

(2) Is made at a forum where representatives of the public utility affected thereby, the office of public counsel, and any other party to the case are present; or

(3) If made outside such agenda meeting or forum, is subsequently disclosed to the public utility, the office of the public counsel, and any other party to the case in accordance with the following procedure:

(a) If the communication is written, the person or party making the communication shall no later than the next business day following the communication file a copy of the written communication in the official case file of the pending filing or case and serve it upon all parties of record;

(b) If the communication is oral, the party making the oral communication shall no later than the next business day following the communication file a memorandum in the official case file of the pending case disclosing the communication and serve such memorandum on all parties of record. The memorandum must contain a summary of the substance of the communication and not merely a listing of the subjects covered.

4. Nothing in this section or any other provision of law shall be construed as imposing any limitation on the free exchange of ideas, views, and information between any person and the commission or any commissioner, provided that such communications relate to matters of general regulatory policy and do not address the merits of the specific facts, evidence, claims, or positions presented or taken in a pending case unless such communications comply with the provisions of subsection 3 of this section.

5. The commission and any commissioner may also advise any member of the general assembly or other governmental official of the issues or factual allegations that are the subject of a pending case, provided that the commission or commissioner does not express an opinion as to the merits of such issues or allegations, and may discuss in a public agenda meeting with parties to a case in which an evidentiary hearing has been scheduled, any procedural matter in such case or any matter relating to a unanimous stipulation or agreement resolving all of the issues in such case.

6. The commission may enter into and establish fair and equitable cooperative agreements or contracts with or act as an agent or licensee for the United States of America, or any official, agency or instrumentality thereof, or any public utility or similar commission of other states, that are proper, expedient, fair and equitable and in the interest of the state of Missouri and the citizens thereof, for the purpose of carrying out its duties pursuant to section 386.250 as limited and supplemented by section 386.030 and to that end the commission may receive and disburse any contributions, grants or other financial assistance as a result of or pursuant to such agreements or contracts. Any contributions, grants or other financial assistance so received shall be deposited in the public service commission utility fund or the state highway commission fund depending upon the purposes for which they are received.

7. The commission may make joint investigations, hold joint hearings within or without the state, and issue joint or concurrent orders in conjunction or concurrence with any railroad, public utility or similar commission, of other states or the United States of America, or any official, agency or any instrumentality thereof, except that in the holding of such investigations or hearings, or in the making of such orders, the commission shall function under agreements or contracts between states or under the concurrent power of states to regulate interstate commerce, or as an agent of the United States of America, or any official, agency or instrumentality thereof, or otherwise.

8. The commission may appear in any proceeding at the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, the Federal Communications Commission, or any other federal administrative agency that has jurisdiction over a utility that is regulated by the commission or whose decisions may affect utility rates or service in Missouri. The commission may also file or otherwise participate in appeals from such federal administrative agencies. This subsection applies to all proceedings pending at the time of, or commenced after, the effective date of this section.”; and

Further amend said bill, Section B, Page 17, by removing all of said section from the bill and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“Section B. Because of the immediate need for public service commissioners to be able to appear at federal hearings and intervene in federal cases, the repeal and reenactment of section 386.210 of section A of this act is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace and safety, and is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and the repeal and reenactment of section 386.210 of section A of this act shall be in full force and effect upon its passage and approval.”; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Parson offered House Substitute Amendment No. 1 for House Amendment No. 1.

*House Substitute Amendment No. 1
House Amendment No. 1*

AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 791, Section 250.233, Page 6, Line 11, by inserting after all of said section, page, and line the following:
