

HB 1252 -- Sentences under Dual Jurisdiction

Sponsor: Curls

This bill allows the court to suspend imposition of an adult criminal sentence in cases where an offender is younger than 17 years of age and has been transferred from juvenile court to a court of general jurisdiction pursuant to Section 211.071, RSMo. The court may impose the sentence and direct that the offender be taken into immediate custody of the Department of Corrections upon reaching 17 years of age.
