

HB 1510 -- Ballroom Dance Courses in Public Schools

Sponsor: Flook

This bill allows public schools to offer courses in ballroom dance. The course will be treated as a qualified fine arts and a physical education activity for academic credit and counted toward satisfaction of any physical education or fine arts requirement of the public school and any entrance requirements for public higher education institutions.