

HB 1611 -- Orders of Protection

Sponsor: Walsh

This bill extends the time period for which an order of protection will be valid from one year to up to three years and changes the provisions of law regarding the admissibility of statements in an abuse hearing from statements of a child younger than 12 years of age to statements of a child younger than 14 years of age.