

HB 1851 -- Nuclear Energy

Sponsor: Nolte

This bill adds nuclear energy to the definition of "renewable energy resources" so that it can be used to meet the required percentages that investor-owned electric utilities must generate or purchase under the provisions of the Renewable Energy Standard adopted in Proposition C in 2008.